

DCRAC Cats, Staff, and Volunteers

Resident Cats

HMDA—Home Mortgage Disclosure Act

HOEPA—Home Owner's Equity Protection Act

EJ—Economic Justice

Volunteers

Hemi Patel provides one-on-one budget counseling and manages our data base

Carol Andrea Charry, former Deputy Director, continues to help us with Spanish translations and outreach

Artika Rangan provides invaluable assistance with our press releases and organizing our events

Joann Griffin is our in house editor

Chris Mears is our Arts Director

Staff

Jessica Mallamace rejoins us to teach our Money Matters! in Kent and Sussex.

Chelsea Newman directs our FHIP program and is responsible for the work on proposed Stepping Stones Community Federal Credit Union

Rony Peralta is re-shaping our Spanish programs so that we are once again fully bilingual

Rashmi Rangan tries to keep DCRAC together

Lori Spagnolo has just finished helping us submit our Standards for Excellence application and is now getting us ready for our 20th birthday bash

Christopher Tijerino has taken on the lead responsibility for our tax clinic

Consultant

Greta White is consulting with us on our Economic Impact Campaign