

Advertising Material

Low-Income Tax Clinic

Pay what you owe. No more.

When you need help navigating taxes, good representation can make all the difference.

We serve families with qualifying incomes at no cost.

Resolving IRS issues:

A controversy with the Internal Revenue service can stall or stop your mortgage modification, credit application, federal student aid, citizenship attainment, bankruptcy proceedings, and more. Whether you're dealing with a levy on Social Security or a bank account, a lien against your home, or an unexpected tax liability, it's critical to resolve the matter correctly.

Quick Facts

- If you owe the IRS, you can either stop collections, make a payment plan, or negotiate a settlement.
- Save your receipts so that, during an audit, you can document the deductions and credits you qualify for.
- If your paycheck doesn't include FICA or other required tax deductions, you may owe a bigger tax bill than you realize.
- Open mailed IRS notices so you can take action or appeal before the deadlines.

Pro Bono Help

At DCRAC Law, cases like yours are our entire practice. Our Low-Income Tax Clinic ensures everyone can get the tax services they need—and pay only what they owe.

About Us

For more than 35 years, DCRAC has integrated legal and financial services with community education and advocacy to enable all Delawareans to manage their own financial future and thrive within mainstream banking and legal systems.

Anthony Dohring, Esq.
302-690-5000
dohringlaw@icloud.com

The Low-Income Tax Clinic is funded in part by the IRS; our employees and volunteers are not affiliated with or endorsed by the IRS or its employees. Your decision to obtain representation from DCRAC will not result in preferential treatment from the IRS, nor will it affect your rights before the IRS.

One East Laurel Street, Georgetown, DE 19947

We provide all our services without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, gender, familial status, disability, age, creed, source of income, marital status, or sexual orientation. Please contact us for accommodation requests.